

Biggest attractions:

Gedser Odde - the most southern tip of Denmark and Scandinavia. Ferry to Rostock (Germany)

Traffic: Asphalt main roads with limited traffic to Marrebæk and Nykøbing F. Max 2% slope.

Route description: From Gedser to Marrebæk and Nykøbing F. (13/25 km)

From the Scandlines ferry terminal in Gedser (3) turn to Moltzaugade until it, after a short distance, reaches Langgade. Then turn left, following Route 40, passing the Gedser Citizens Meeting House on Skråvej, continuing on Gedser Landevej to Gedesby (6). A tiny village with a church and an old windmill. The bicycle track then turns left through a short tunnel under the main road. Follow the Gl. Landevej through Skelby (7), passing Fiskebæk woods (8) and the estate Gedsergaard.

You can follow a tiny detour to the Bruserup Strand (9), to a small fishing place with primitive nature campsite and shelter.

From Marrebæk (10) the track proceeds on route 417 north towards Nykøbing F. (11 km) or towards east until Lupintorvet in Bøtø (4 km). One goes on to Godthåbs Alle, passing the old Bøtø Nor Pumpstation (11) as well as the Gocart Center (12), and enters finally the Bøtø Ringvej and the Lupinvej until one reaches Lupintorvet (13). From here, you will continue on the light green route. www.cykelblomsten.dk

Traffic: Unpaved, forest, and asphalted roads. The main roads with moderate traffic. Max. 2% slope.

Route description: From Gedser to Bøtø/Marielyst (17/20 km)

From the Scandlines ferry terminal in Gedser (3) turn to Moltzaugade until it, after a short distance, reaches Langgade, then turn right into Langgade and Sdr. Boulevard (2). Then follow the sign FALSTER RUNDT towards the Gedser Lighthouse. Opposite the Lighthouse, on your left, you will find a small track "Poststien" towards north until it proceeds into Birkemosevej, Salimorvej and further on into Krogedevej, until you finally reach Gedesby (6).

From there you follow the sign and arrow-marks through the Bøtø-woods until you reach Bøtøvej and Lupintorvet (13). From there you now follow the light green Route 417 onwards to Marielyst. www.cykelblomsten.dk

Attractions: see also www.gedser.net www.visitlolland-falster.com

1. Gedser. The most southern point of Denmark and Scandinavia, with the "Southstone" and the communication house in the former naval base at Gedser Odde, just beside the bird ringing station and Gedser Lighthouse.
2. Gedser campsite and shelter. A possibility for staying overnight, however primitive, with restroom. Table and benches, a bit south of the town of Gedser. Granite sculpture by the Danish sculptor Jesper Neergard.
3. Gedser ferry terminal. Geological museum, railway museum Gedser Remise with the signal box originated from a Danish movie "The Olsen Gang" (will be up by September 2016). Gedser Church. Supermarket Brugsen. Lifeboat station at the fishing port.
4. Gedser water tower. Garden of the senses. Marina. Kroghage nature reserve (red detour). From there you can take an alternative route (dashed line) to Gedesby.

5. The Old Merchant www.radbjerg-keramik.dk. Tourist information, café, ceramics and a bike-rental shop.
6. Gedesby - village with church, marker of the Great Flood of 1872, old Gedesby windmill, baker (during summer season), Gammelgade with a number of old idyllic houses.
7. Skelby - small village with beach.
8. Fiskebæk woods with stone grave.
9. Bruserup Strand campsite and shelter and a small beach
10. Marrebæk with supermarket, tables and benches, playground.
11. Bøtø Nor Old pump-station adjacent to the Marrebæk canal. www.pumpemuseum.dk
12. Gokart and Paintball Center. www.gokart.dk
13. Lupintorvet. Supermarket and rent a bike shop. Playground. Place to eat your brought along meal.

Sydstenen

Gedser Remise